

EASY DOES IT

The new Olara Residences brings premier wellness to West Palm Beach's waterfront.

BY SOPHIE COLLONGETTE

Combining the serenity of the water with wellness, Olara Residences arrives at West Palm Beach's meditative Intercoastal Waterway. Seamlessly integrating five-star resort-style service and upscale wellness amenities, the newest collection of waterfront residences delivers a new level of hospitality.

Providing a unique life on the water, this relaxing destination places a premium on health and wellness—one where residents will have access to an exclusive marina, private spa and world-class culinary offerings.

The 80,000 square feet of amenity space at Olara is destined to fulfill all residents' luxurious wants and needs. Top-of-the-line features include an acclaimed waterfront restaurant, a signature state-of-the-art fitness center and spa, two pool areas, a waterfront veranda with grills and fire pits, a coworking space and more. The luxury condominium tower will also feature expansive views of the Intracoastal Waterway, Palm Beach Island and the Atlantic Ocean—spectacular for an easeful and soothing experience, blurring the lines between resort experiences and residential living.

Designed by award-winning architecture firm Arquitectonica and Gabellini Sheppard, luxury living is redefined thanks to Olara Residences' exquisite interiors, architectural designs and structure. The 26-story condominium tower at Olara includes 275 two-to-four-bedroom plus den residences. As your answer to effortless living, the 4-acre development is exquisitely designed to overlook the water while creating elegant harmony along the elements. Olara will also feature a holistic amenity suite on the sixth floor, allowing residents to feel their best.

Designed to keep mind and body in tune with a peaceful lifestyle, all the while bridging East Coast taste with West Palm verve, Olara will be a personal paradise in South Florida where sophisticated clientele can enjoy a sense of belonging and community. 1919 N.
