Savanna Partners with José Andrés Group for Luxury Residential Condo & Restaurant in West Palm Beach

traded by Traded Media Share <

Savanna, a New York-based developer, has unveiled a partnership with the José Andrés Group for Olara, a new luxury residential condominium located in West Palm Beach. Renowned Chef José Andrés will introduce his first restaurant concept in the Palm Beaches at Olara, promising exclusive culinary services for residents alongside a waterfront dining experience spanning 8,500 square feet.

Construction Milestones and Amenities

Olara marks the commencement of its construction, including the development of a private dock amenity. General contractors SavCon and Gilbane are overseeing the project, scheduled for completion in 2027. The development aims to offer condominium residences, a private marina, and world-class culinary experiences.

Vision and Collaborative Efforts

Chris Schlank, President and Co-Chairman of Savanna, expresses excitement over the partnership with José Andrés Group and the groundbreaking of Olara, emphasizing the introduction of a unique luxury residential concept. Sam Bakhshandehpour, President of José Andrés Group, highlights West Palm Beach's status as a hub for finance and residential living, aligning with Olara's vision for year-round waterfront living.

Architectural Design and Lifestyle Offerings

Designed by Arquitectonica, Olara features 275 private condominium residences with interiors by Gabellini Sheppard. The development offers 80,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor amenity spaces, including a 13,000-square-foot fitness center by The Wright Fit and two swimming pools. Emphasizing wellness, Olara collaborates with Sollis Health to provide exclusive healthcare services. Additional amenities include co-working spaces, private dock experiences, and lushly landscaped grounds.

Sales Information

Prices for Olara's residences start at $2 million, with Douglas Elliman Development Marketing managing sales exclusively.

Olara emerges as a transformative development in West Palm Beach, blending luxury living, culinary excellence, and waterfront lifestyle offerings to create an unmatched experience for residents and the community at large.
